Foreword

"You can't go back," the philosophers say,
"And he who tries is foolish.

The work moves on and we must change
Though life seems stiff and rulish."

Yet, within this book we've taken the time
To open the windows wide;
And let the thoughts of our "Haverling years"
Find their own quiet knicks inside.

The pages we planned so carefully
Will feel the fingers of time
As the class of '60 carries its book
Into every state and clime.

And still in the midst of a changing world
With its modern ideas and trends,
We'll have this keepsake of blue and white—
An open letter to our friends.

Read it we ask, for it's worth;
You needn't judge or ponder.

We laughed and worked and lived like it says,
And in parting, these memories grow fonder.

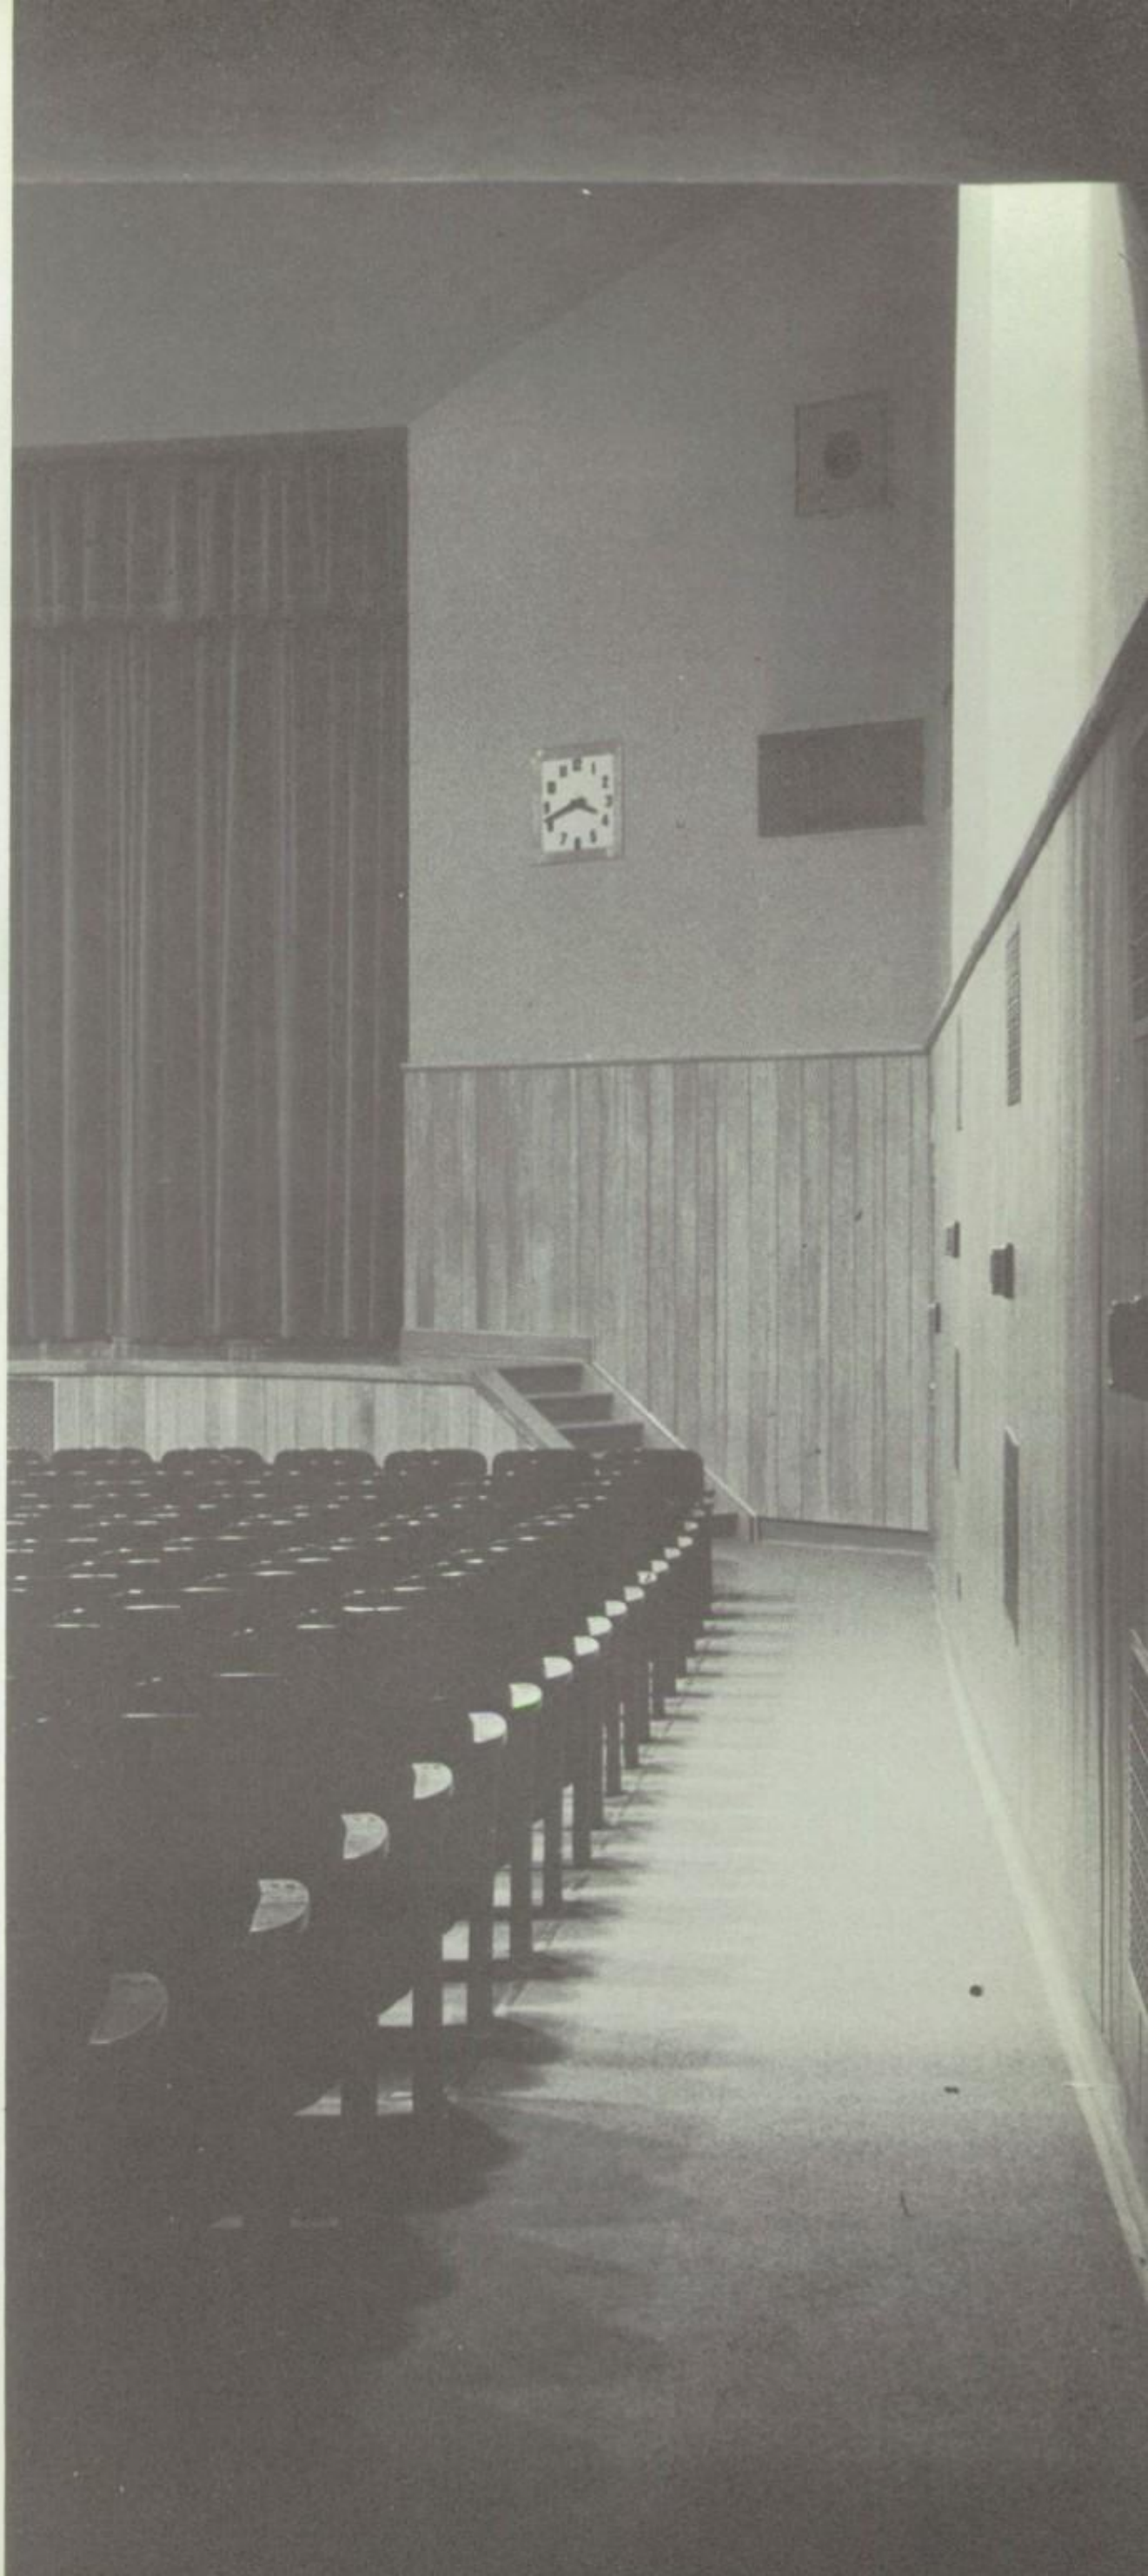
Although our beloved Superintendent has been taken from us, we shall always remember Mr. Wightman as our personal friend, an able school executive, a loyal member of his church and a devoted family man. For his many contributions to the cause of learning and his sincere concern for his teachers and students, we are truly thankful.

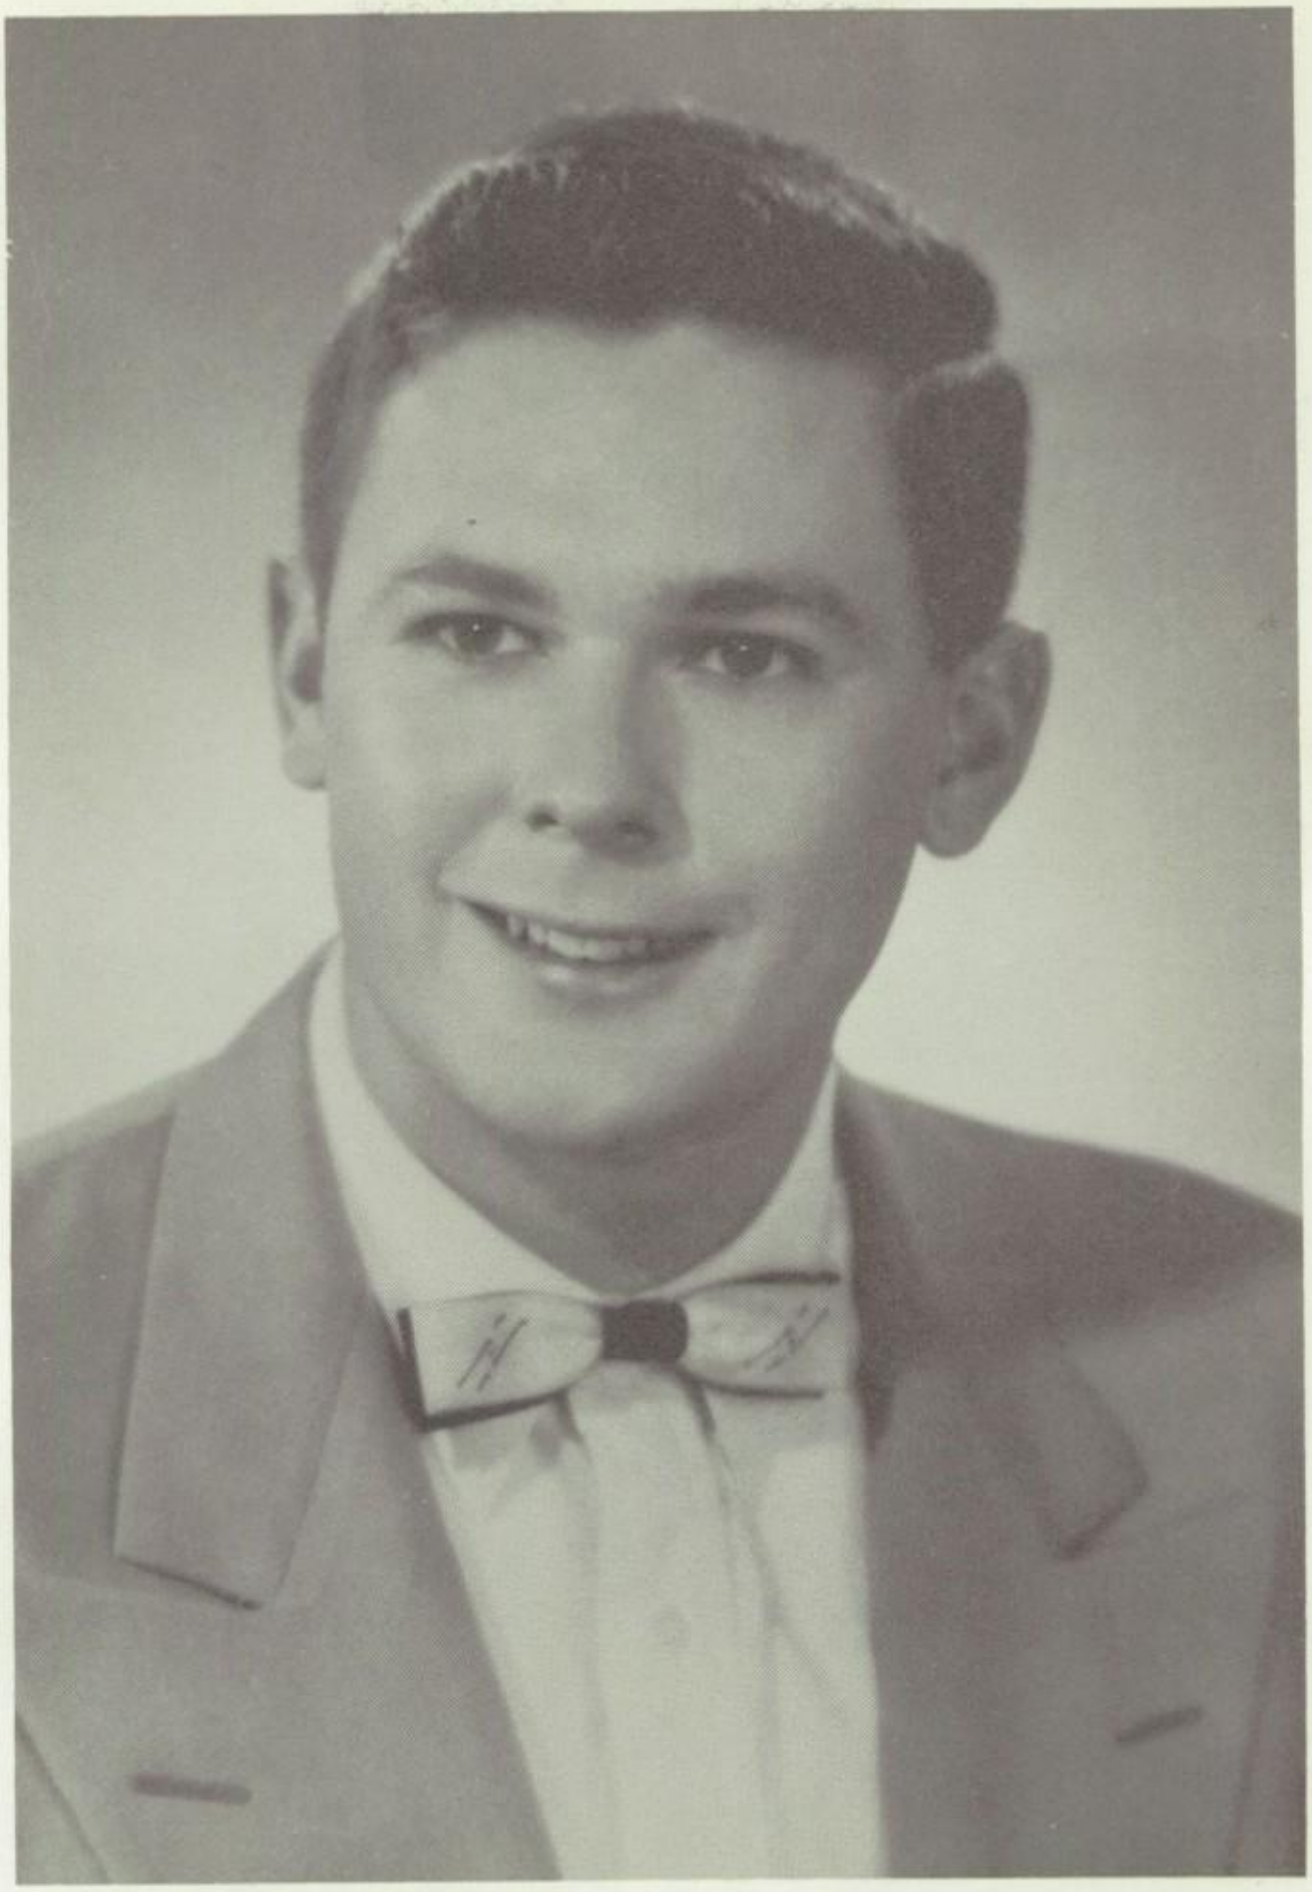
Mr. Wightman was an inspiration to all of us and will live in our memories and the history of Haverling forever.

The happy heart is singing an old and used refrain; the happy heart has laughed and cried in sunshine, fog and rain.

But———

Tomorrow a new day is dawning and our future's seem awesome and bright; and it's here—backstage—that we practiced cues for our "on stage" calls in life.





Dear Sir:

For your patience and loyalty as a teacher, for your smile and kind assurance as our friend, we address our thanks and appreciation to you.

Firmly believing that music gives unity to our lives, you have inspired us to listen and search for happiness by appreciating the universal language.

It is with sincere gratitude for your many contributions to the world of learning through music, that we, the Class of 1960, wish to dedicate our "HAVERLINGUIST" to you . . . LUTHER HOFFMAN.

Board of Education

To our excellent Board of Education at Haverling go our sincere thanks and gratitude for the many duties it has carried out in making Haverling a better place in which to secure an education. The time and work spent by this group has been so that we, the students of Haverling, may enjoy the benefits of the policies made by them.

We certainly have the finest Board of Education and without it Haverling would not be the school it is today.

The Administration

Learning and growing seem to go hand in hand through our lives. As we complete this first lap of our educational journey, it seems fitting to take time out to acknowledge those who have guided us thus far . . .

Your motto, Mr. Rock, must have something to do with the old proverb, "If it's worth doing at all, it's worth doing well." The examples you have set for us in your daily work will always be before us as we continue along the paths of knowledge.

MR. ROCK; Acting Superintendent of Schools

MR. NADEAU; Principal Jr -Sr. High School

For your sincere and faithful interest in our progress, Mr. Nadeau, we extend a special "thank you." Your understanding and patience to help us through the rough spots and your willingness to be our friend have meant so very much to us these past four years.

To you, Mr. Lyon, goes much of the credit for getting us off to such a good start. As principal of the elementary school, your assistance and guidance gave us the will to further our knowledge and strive for bigger and better things.

MR. LYON; Principal Elementary School

High School Faculty

To Those who have guided us:

A ship without a rudder is serviceable only as long as the sea remains calm. When storms descend upon it, it is tossed carelessly over the water and sinks. Just so, textbook knowledge without practical guidance for the storms of life is not education at all, but a poor substitute for the real learning process. True education is personal and strong.

With this in mind, the class of '60 takes this opportunity to extend a sincere "Thank You" to the faculty of Haverling for its never failing guidance, trust and understanding. Your friendly smiles, a helping hand, and always a kind wish for our success have meant more to us than all the books in the world.

NELSON BOND, Elementary Curriculum Coordinator

We will ever be grateful to our "first" teachers who helped us to co-ordinate our minds and our bodies. The influence of the three R's, which they introduced us to, have been the building blocks for our futures and success.

Secretaries

Always ready to help us with our problems, the extremely efficient secretarial staff works hard to keep Haverling running on an even keel. Their cheerful faces greet us as we enter the offices, and they always seem willing to go out of their way to help us all. The work that they are doing behind the scenes is certainly something that Haverling is proud of and we all agree that it's "hats off" to the fine job they are doing.

Faithful Staff

Through winter gales and spring thaws these men are as faithful to their duty of transporting students as mail carriers with their slogan—"It must go through." Little do we realize that without them some of us wouldn't be traveling that road to further knowledge and future success.

Class History

In the sixth month of 1960
Our books have been read –
The knowledge is true.
We take its fortune with us.

We leave behind this
History complete
For those who had faith in us.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

A class of firsts we seem to have been, and this I'm sure is fortune. We've worked and dreamed and played together, and were rewarded in proportion.

From our Freshman year, we aimed high for our goals, and never shirked our duty.

Our bake sale, youth dance, and record hops crowned financial success with beauty.

We pooled our resources as sophomores should, and as a new endeavor contrived to produce the cleanest, wettest and most successful car wash ever!

To this we added a will to win and a spirit of healthful competition.

To do the job and do it well was our earnest junior petition.

Judy Van Gelder and Howard Veit were our Veep Candidates for the Council.

When the voting came in with Howie on top, we made it the best year – a real bomb shell!

The Junior Prom was a sight to behold, a tropical island indeed. A little grass hut, a leaky blue pool, and a night of enchantment was freed.

As June rolled around we even found time to give the seniors a night to remember.

Memories of a delightful Junior-Senior Banquet held us through to '60 September.

And then as last, to sudden to be, we were the oldest, the seniors. With so many wonderful things in sight, we planned carefully – But crossed our fingers!

The Student Council campaign took out time, Howie Veit our Treasurer, Judy Brown on top.

We worked to ensure the hopes of '59 and drew the exchange student's lot.

Then on to more fun and the Senior Play, and experience we cannot forget.

"The Family Nobody Wanted" it was called and the audience loved it you can bet.

Our magazine sale was a huge success and we were really on our way. To top it off, the Haverling Rams brought the jug back home to stay.

In the Christmas snow came the senior "Snow Ball" and oh, what a night it was!

Snow Flakes and tinsel and a bright ski lodge crowned our efforts and fuss.

Then the Washington trip and a dream came true – was ever a class as lucky as ours?

The memories and snapshots and anecdotes will be pondered for many tomorrows.

But at last it's done and we've planted one role and we look to the future with hope.

In four short years, we've learned a lot and we know it doesn't pay to mope.

To those of you who will follow us through, we say sincerly, Good-luck!

Remember to smile, work together as one, and keep Haverling's tradition in front.

And so Good-by, Good-luck, and much happiness from the biggest and best class in Haverling's history,

With best regards

Sincerely, The Class of '60

Jr. Prom

Dancing under the palms and to dreamy music, everyone was totally thrilled with "Tropical Isle" the theme of the Jr. Prom.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the handsome King and Queen.

After an evening of dancing, eating and listening to the wonderful music, everyone was ready to kick off their shoes and call it a night, one never to be forgotten on the "Tropical Isle."

Soft candle-light transformed the whirling dancers into misty silhouettes beyond the boundary of our ski lodge. In storybook fashion the R-G Quintet kept the couples "floating on cloud seven" until the clock struck one.

The high point of our ball was the crowning of the royal couples and their attendants.

The glow of this lovely evening will remain unchanged in our hearts for years to come!

We Bequeath

To Rosa Longwell we leave Linda Kenzie's ability to create 128 pages of delightful memories.

To Muriel Lapp we leave Dianne Ames' inimitible gift of charm in order to capture the hearts of Haverling's weaker sex.

To Don Pitcher we leave Guy Ackerson's amazing ability to maintain his coolness at all times and above all not to panic when behind the wheel.

To Jack Byers we leave Ken Brooks' wily ways in which to never get his assignments done on time, realizing that they do get done . . . later.

To Mr. Brace's biology class we leave 36 desks equipped with hearing aids and noseplugs.

To Paul Schnipelsky we leave Alan Jones' body building ability.

To Carl Thurston we leave Phil Dickson's ability to carry a tune.

To Dick Fitzwater we leave Jim Fleet's tremendous art of weirdoism . . . he knows all, sees all and hears all.

To Mina Reynolds we leave Phyllis Berhannon's rip-roaring ability of giving parties and seeing that everyone has a good time.

To John Castrilli we leave Dave Sliney's knack of getting a "hole in one" and a pair of muddy golf shoes.

To Melanie Cohn we leave Sarah Nichols' talent for future Thespian Showcase presentations.

To Denny Brush we leave Tom Slineys' ping pong paddle in hope for another successful season.

To Bart Bradley we leave Joyce Denlinger's gift of gab.

To Bucky Squires we leave Gordie Muck's ability to have a good time.

To Tom McKee we leave Lyn Longwell's height in hope that he will be able to reach the basket next year.

To Mr. Burrington we leave a sincere hope for experimental success in Lab classes.

To Lyn Robie we leave Verna Snyder's alarm clock which she never used. So it should be in good condition with hope that he will be able to get to school on time.

To Mary Adamowicz we leave Jerry Alvermann's terrific speed on the typewriter so she can get next year's Haverlinguist to press on time.

To Gloria Parady we leave Waneta Easterbrook's bass clarinet. Honestly Gloria, the bell won't fall off anymore because she had it fixed.

To Coach Northrup we leave Barbara French's humble apology for disrupting his study hall with her chatter and note passing.

To Kathy Reed we leave Richard VanScoter's car to haul her baritone horn around.

To Stanley Zawrotny we leave Bob Miller's slide rule and Bowdon gauge for aid in next year's Physics lab.

We, the "cool" class of '60, being hep but thoroughly beat both mentally and physically, declare this to be the utmost end. In our last will and testament, we bequeath to the clique of 1961 all our way out belongings in the hope that they will be used, Man!

Underclassmen

High school is many things –

It's always getting homework done;

Making decisions, having fun –

It's learning how to act and say;

The "proper" things from day to day –

It's yelling cheers, and lovely balls;

It's full of plans and crowded halls –

It's making worthwhile, lifetime friends;

It's plays and concerts, and fashion trends –

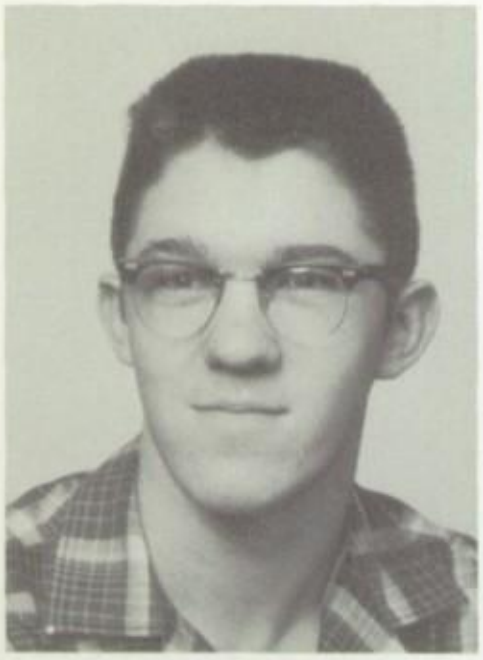
It's daily struggle and lasting joy;

It's assembly time notes – 'Ship A'hoy!'

We hope you'll treasure our high school song;

And leave our Alma Mater proud and strong!

Juniors



JAMES CROCKER
President

As the year progressed our Juniors, successfully combatted the annual problem of a deflated purse. Their pencil sale was a tremendous success, ending with the sale of one thousand more pencils than any previous class.

The new experience of the student council campaign proved invigorating to the class spirit, good sportsmanship and clean competition proved the class to be made of the material necessary to become good citizens.

STANLEY ZAWROTNY
Vice-President

Looking forward to the Junior Prom, the class worked feverishly towards getting the decorations ready and having the best band. Holding their breaths—the dance was held on Friday the thirteenth! With a sigh of relief they settled back to an evening of bliss and enjoyment for all. As the footweary Juniors crawled home they all agreed that they had "the best dance ever!"

Our industrious Freshman class has acquainted itself very well to the rigors and vigors of high school life.

Soon after opening the door to high school life, they assumed complete competence in daily tasks.

Under the assistance of Mr. Gutierrez, their class advisor, they held a semi-formal dance, "Mardi-Gras" and a successful bake sale.

The entire class is working diligently and will be the pride of Haverling on graduation day of '63.

The National Honor Society is one of the scholastic organizations of the school. Its purpose is to develop leadership, character, scholarship and service among Haverling students. Pupils who have shown excellence in these fields become members of the Society.

The big project of the Society is the Christmas wrapping paper sale, which nets the largest portion of its income. One of the outstanding assemblies of the year is the induction of new members into the Society.

Junior Haverlinguist Staff

First Row: K. Evans; P. Tock: M. Adamowicz. Second Row: M. Cohn; J. Swift; M. Lapp; R. Longwell; K. Reed; S. Zawrotny; B. Alvermann.

Members of the Junior staff assist the seniors in editing the Haverlinguist. With this valuable experience they are now ready to begin work on their 1961 yearbook.

Press Club

"Deadline tomorrow!" is a cry familiar to all Press Club reporters at Haverling. These students get the latest school news to print for the interest and entertainment of everyone. Like true newspaper reporters they must learn to meet the monthly deadline. Press Club is continuously striving toward the inevitable goal of making each issue the best High Spots ever, and this year they have done extremely well.

G. Beckman, Art Editor; J. Wilson, Feature Editor; S. Nichols, Literary Editor.

During the course of the school year the Haverlinguist staff works hard to present the best yearbook ever to the school in June. The "Haverlinguist" consists of both written and pictorial events of the past year. It depicts, in a summary, all the school activities and events that have made this year one of the most memorable and enjoyable. The perseverance and work put forth by the 1960 staff has certainly put out a yearbook we hope can top the yearbooks of the past.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association opens its doors to all high school girls interested in fostering the spirit of good sportsmanship.

This year participating members attended playdays away and played host to many schools. All in all, a successful year was enjoyed by the girls and a beneficial outlet was supplied for their excess energy.

Library Club

We owe much to this charming group of girls, always willing to help us in our literary work. Their assistance in the library greatly lessens the load for Mrs. Magill.

In the fall of each year the members of Library Club prepare and distribute the textbooks which we use throughout the school year. Each month they plan a different display on the bulletin boards in the library.

We shall always be grateful to this cheerful group.

And felt the chills run up our spines.
But . . .
As artists of the theater each fresh inspiring cue
We try to meet with skill and thought to please each one of you.

Nichols.

The purpose of French Club is to learn more about the French customs and the language. New members must speak French and be initiated before they can become members. The French Club has several social meetings a year at which there is usually a speaker to explain certain points about the French language or customs. Films pertaining to French culture or to the nation of France are also regularly shown.

Inter Nos

First row: D. Cook; J. Batlan; M. Mangano; K. Baronas; C. White. Seated: D. Norcross; J. Smith; B. Alvermann; M. Lapp; T. Sliney; K. Reed; M. Cohn; L. Kenzie. Standing: S. Nichols; K. Kline; G. Ackerman; B. Lane; B. Bradley; D. Lynn; R. Sick; N. Bennett; S. Nadler; Miss Spencer.

All students must attain an average of 85 in their first year of Latin to become members of Inter Nos. The Roman Banquet is undoubtedly the most popular event of the year. At this banquet the club members step into the past and for an evening are dressed in the garb of Roman gods and goddesses. Roman delicacies add to the gala event.

Future Teachers of America

First row: J. Friedland; M. Cohn; K. Reed; L. Dobbins; M. Mangano; C. Garrison; J. Batlan. Seated: K. Baronas; J. Fuller; D. Ames; M. Mangano; W. Easterbrook; L. Kenzie; B. French; C. VonHagn; T. Giacomini; E. Piazza. Standing: O. Schnipelsky; J. Denlinger; S. Cohn; C. Hill; B. Allen; L. Daley; J. Fuller; Mrs. Finnerty; D. Cook; G. VanGelder; K. Sprague.

The Future Teachers' Club is organized to better prepare for the teaching career those students interested in that profession. It gives those undecided an opportunity to look into teaching by "working" for various teachers of the faculty. Membership in this club will always prove invaluable.

Future Nurses Club

First row: G. Norman; G. Burleson; S. Lent; H. Ruger; L. Wise; P. Longwell; G. Pulos. Second row: D. Ribble; J. Redding; P. Tock; R. Longwell; C. Daley; K. Finkle; B. Karwoski; M. Harrison; V. Noble; Miss Capron.

Members of the F. N. A. are always found active in hospital and clinical work to gain valuable experience for their future occupation. These girls spend many hours at the hospital working along with nurses to learn the basic fundamentals of nursing.

This Christmas a party was held and later in the year a Candy Sale was sponsored.

Sitting: M. Gerych; J. Taggart; B. Wilson; G. Beckman; Mrs. Sager; J. Van Gelder; M. Cook; S. Conley; J. Friedland. Standing: G. Van Gelder; N. Dugo; S. Ludden; K. Rezelman; J. Morrow; L. Daley; J. Rock; J. Locey.

Art Club

The Art Club is a small organization but their ideas are king-size.

During the course of the year, the Club's major project was that of designing and assembling hundreds of festive Christmas jewelry sets consisting of earnings and corsages. This project proved to be one of the most successful projects in the Club's history.

Christmas Art at Haverling

Haverling High School art students this year worked on a variety of Christmas art decorations for the entrance to the building. The painting on the left was done by Janice Cooper and Karen Evans and the one at the right by Sondra Ludden and Bonnie Jacobs.

Announcer's Club

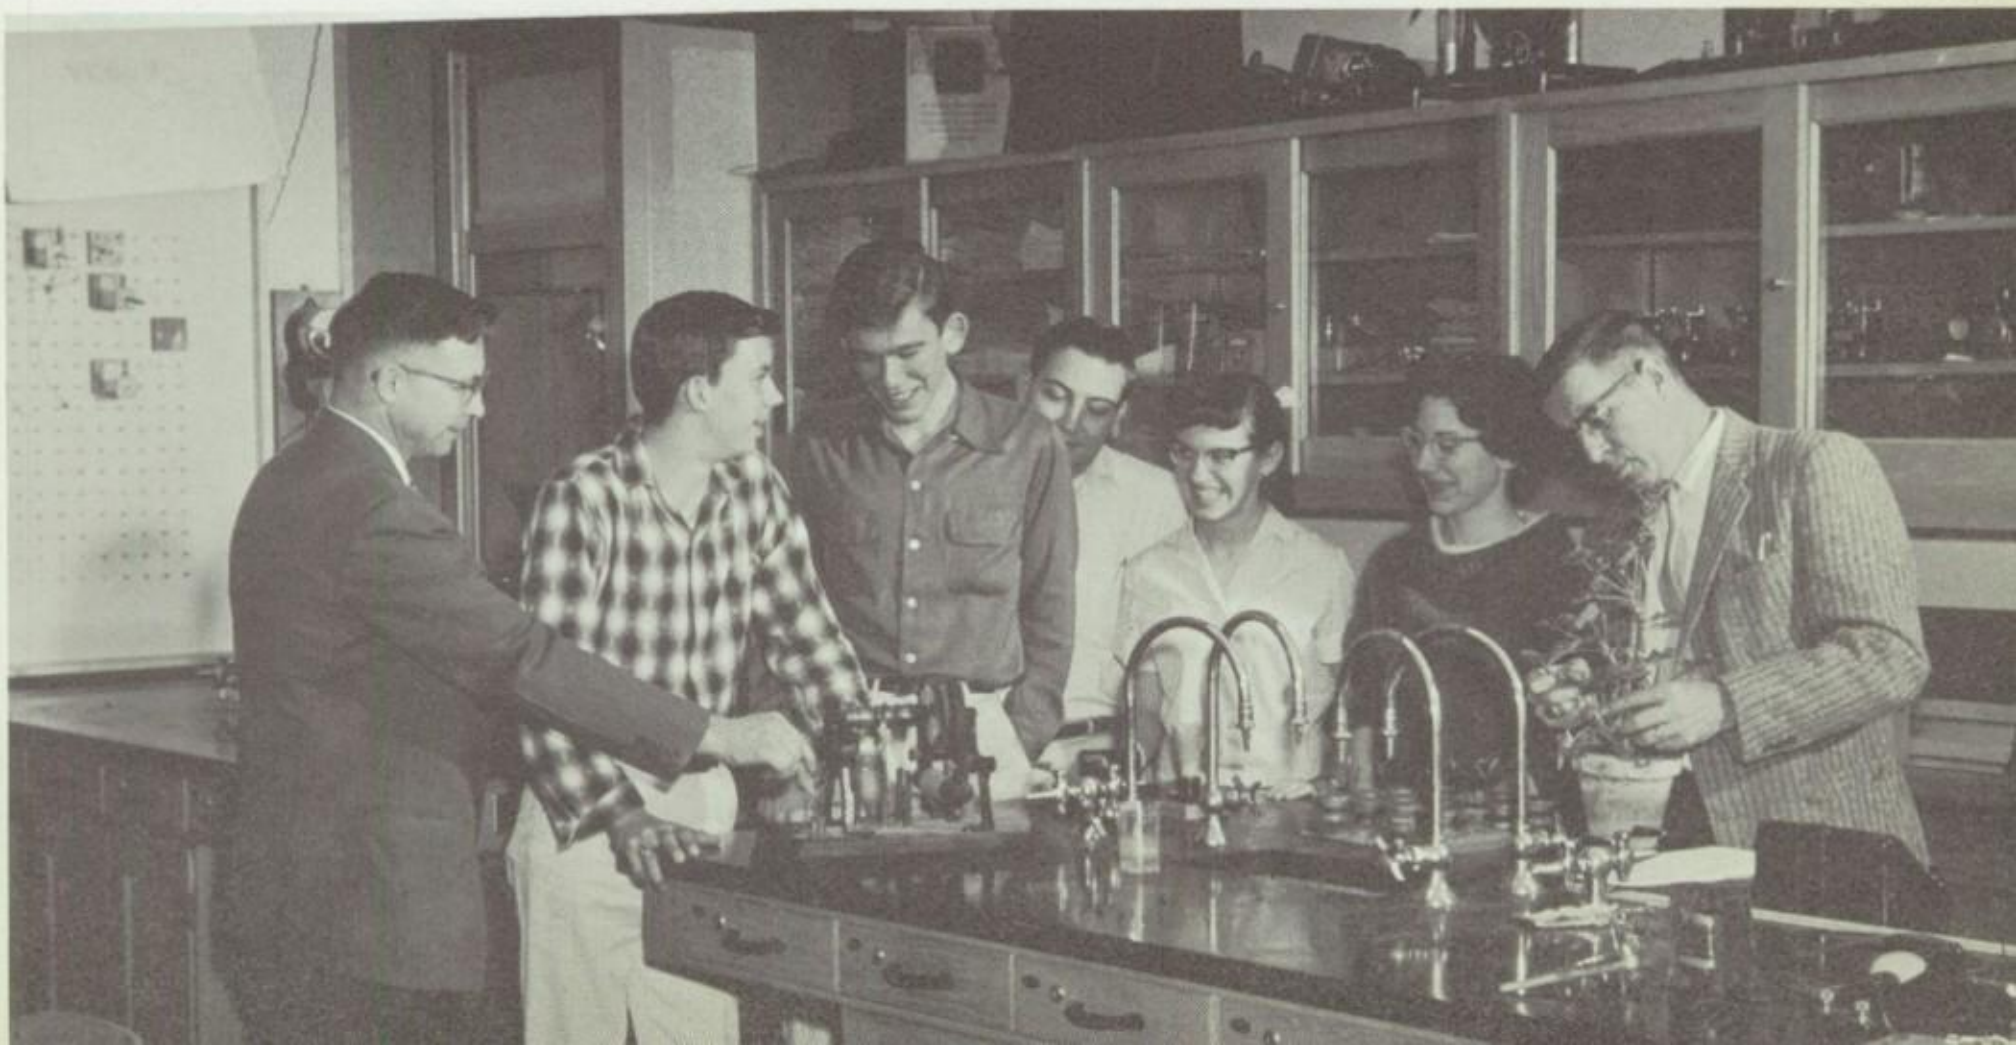
First row: B. Ormsby; M. Cohn; J. Fuller; Mr. Gallagher; D. Norcross. Second row: B. Karwoski; B. Lane; S. Mowchan; L. Kenzie; H. Veit; P. Schnipelsky; S. Nichols.

There are many activities carried out by busy people in a growing school like Haverling. It is the duty of the announcer's club to inform students and faculty members alike of the day's meetings and special activities. The cheery "good morning" which proceeds the daily announcements has a way of setting the day off on the right foot.

Science Club

Mr. Burrington; J. Burton; P. Schnipelsky; A. Stamp; S. Wintle; M. Van Scoter; Mr. Brace.

The Science Club provides our future scientists an opportunity to study the many fascinating marvels of the world around us. Mr. Burrington demonstrates the alternator while the members look on. Mr. Brace inspects a geranium plant being used in an experiment.



Senior Future Homemakers of America

For boys whose interest centers in the field of agriculture, the FFA provides a learning and proving ground for further development. Because of increasing interest in the FFA program this year, it was necessary to divide the group in half for the picture. The FFA has received recognition this year for having one of their own, Doug Jones, elected president of the county organization. They also won first place in the county chapter meeting contest which was held this year in Prattsburg.

Mr. Trant; P. Chissom; H. Porter; F. Gerow; L. Dyer; B. Fleet; D. Brewer; B. Dawson; D. Silliman; B. Sullivan; L. Clark.

High School Band

The Haverling Symphonic Band is one of the most completely instrumentated bands in the state. With its oboes, English horn, soprano clarinet, three bassoons, bass and alto clarinets, string basses, and full tuba section, plus the ordinary brass, woodwind, and percussion instruments, we are able to produce the full sonority required by even the most modern compositions.

Out of 360 bands competing in the State Festival last year, we were one of the 27 to receive the coveted "A" rating in grade 6 music, a distinction to be proud of.

We are grateful for the continued support of our teachers, administration, Board of Education, and particularly to the enthusiastic audiences that support our annual concerts.

Cornets — Horns First row: L. Matthews; R. Peacock; J. Dugo; D. Ames; M. McMahon; G. VanGelder; K. Daley; K. Ireland; P. Seybolt; C. Hill; B. French. Second row: M. Johnson; T. McKee; S. Rappaport; D. Stewart; B. Lane; L. Longwell; G. Hughes; C. Dusenberry; J. Fleet; A. Stuart.

Although pictured is our concert band, the snappy marching band plays no small part in our year's activities. Under the baton of drum majorette Waneta Easterbrook, the band performed a different precision drill at each football game. Mr. Hoffman, Waneta, and majorette captain Barbara French carefully planned and co-ordinated each movement of the band with the majorette corps.

Featured on the football field this year were the marching "H", several precision drills, and the Hawaiian show with its growing palm tree and "our" Hawaiian dancers.

In addition to marching for football games, the Haverling marching band has performed for the annual Memorial Day and Veterans' Day parades. We also plan to compete in the 1960 New York State Fair's competition for bands.

Football

This year, the second of coach John Northrup's tenure as Haverling football coach, proved to be one of the "brighter" years in Haverling football history. With great potential and a strong desire to win, the Ramblers defeated Painted Post in the "jug" classic, thus far overshadowing their otherwise 1-7 record.

The Rams started slowly but came on fast to cop the coveted "jug" from the Posters, after an absence of five years. In this crucial game, the mighty men of Haverling, led by fullback Bob "Dooley" Dawson, displayed great determination, holding off a late Post rally, and emerging the victors 7-6. A roaring crowd of 2,000 witnessed the "upset," but for Haverling's football men it was no "upset." Strong desire had been burning in their hearts for five long years and they were not to be denied.

The class of 1960 is the first class to go completely through their new building and it is only fitting that this year's team be the one to put the "jug" in our halls for the first time. To you, Ramblers, we say, "a job well done!"

It must also be noted that Haverling's J.V.'s were undefeated and untied having but one touchdown scored upon them.

With all this, 1960 must be rated as a "bright" year for football.

To The Graduates of 1960:

The society that has a deep and abiding respect for learning will survive and make progress in spite of the awesome problems of our time. The contribution you will make toward a better society will depend on the value you place upon the acquirement of greater knowledge by yourself and by all other citizens.

We extend our congratulations to you with every best wish for your personal success and with confidence in your ability to help build a better world.
